

Machine Shop Assessments

Identify areas to grow your business and maximize productivity

Small- to mid-sized machine shop manufacturers are experiencing turnover, a lack of skilled labor, lost business due to offshoring, and having to cut prices in order to stay in business.

By knowing how to take advantage of their strengths and opportunities, and also being open to mitigating weaknesses and assessing threats, manufacturers that perform machining are setting themselves up for future growth opportunities, even during industry and economic down cycles.

GaMEP obtained a grant to conduct 100 no-cost assessments in Georgia, providing a customized path for each machine shop to grow.
